

COOKIE POLICY

Gospel Gear CC t/a First Consult SA | Authorised Financial Services Provider | FSP 44958

Effective date: 17 September 2026

What cookies are

Cookies are small data files or similar technologies stored on or accessed through a device when a website is used. They can support essential website functions, security, preferences, analytics and other features.

How First Consult SA may use cookies

- Strictly necessary cookies required for website operation and security.
- Preference or functionality cookies that remember user choices.
- Analytics cookies used to understand website usage and improve performance.
- Third-party cookies where external services, embedded content or approved marketing tools are used.

Consent

Where consent is legally required for non-essential cookies, users should be given an appropriate choice before those cookies are activated. Essential cookies may operate where necessary for the website to function.

Managing cookies

Users can manage cookies through the website's cookie controls, where provided, and through browser settings. Blocking some cookies may affect website functionality.

Third parties

Third-party services may set their own cookies and process information under their own privacy terms. The website should identify material third-party cookie or analytics services in its consent tool or privacy information where applicable.

Updates

This policy may be updated when website technologies or legal requirements change. The latest version should be published with an effective date.

Document control: Prepared for website publication by Gospel Gear CC t/a First Consult SA. Review when business details, law, regulatory requirements or website functionality materially change.
